

I do NOT think the "do not call" law needs to be amended. If I need a product, I will contact the business I am with. I hate to have people calling me to sell me something I do not need or use.